

Please do not allow businesses to utilize my personal cell phone to gain access to speak with me. Annoying sales calls are bad enough, I beg you not to allow cell phone users to loose their privacy to vultures in the consumer banking industry. If I need a bank, a charge card, a home equity loan, a car loan, college tuition help...I'll go find them, I don't want them finding me first!! Thanks for listening. Mrs. F.E. Crandall (Jan 27, 2005)
